

Newburyport/Haverhill Basketball Team Competes in Metropolis Tournament

On Saturday, February 27th, several young men (Dan Hansen, Alexander Connor, Chris Connor, Elias Connor, Max George) from Annunciation Church and Holy Apostles Church in Haverhill joined forces to participate in the Metropolis of Boston Youth Basketball Tournament held at St. Vasilios Greek Orthodox Church in Peabody. The team, professionally represented in custom made t-shirts of red and gold, came together with the efforts of Eric Hansen. Our talented coaches, Kevin and Ed Connor kept the team fresh and motivated to get the job done. The Newburyport/Haverhill Team started off Game 1 of the tournament against Lynn. The competition was tough and made for a close and exciting game with Newburyport/Haverhill taking the 34-31 win! We had a strong fan base filled made up of our priests, fellow GOYANs, siblings, parents and other church members who stopped by to cheer on our boys! Although our 2nd game against St. Demetrios of Weston and 3rd game against St. Spyridon of Worcester did not end victorious, a great day of basketball was enjoyed by all!
